Malin Hotel - Testimonials

Below are a few testimonials from some of the recent weddings we have had in the Malin Hotel.

“We had a marvellous day due to the attention received from the hotel staff”

“We all felt that our wedding was the most important event of the year and that is how the hotel staff made us feel”

“Thank you all for the brilliant food and service”

"I would like to thank all the staff for looking after us all so well during our stay with you for our wedding. I could not fault anything. The food, the service and the room were first class and I don't think I have ever met such helpful & friendly staff. Thank you once again for making our day so special."

"Our Wedding at the Malin Hotel was somewhat of a fairytale. The staff made everyone welcome and we were well looked after for the entire evening. Having family over from Australia it was important that they were comfortable and got the true 'Irish Country Experience' with a definite luxury twist. We would certainly recommend the Malin Hotel to anyone planning a wedding."

"I had my wedding at the Malin Hotel. It was the best day, everything was perfect and that was down to Madeleine and the staff. They made all my guests welcome the venue was class, the function room looked beautiful and all my guests commented on how delicious the food was. You definitely got the true country experience, I would definitely recommend this Hotel to all people for weddings."
